PROFILE

Senior B2B marketing leader — exclusively B2B since 2008 — with a proven track record across global SaaS, RegTech, FinTech, GovTech and LegalTech. Most recently Marketing Director at Shufti Pro (rebranded to Shufti) — a global RegTech SaaS platform — driving ARR growth from $3M to $20M through two successive promotions from Senior Digital Marketing Manager to Head of Marketing to Marketing Director. Built and led global demand generation, ABM, brand, digital and marketing operations across EMEA, MENA, APAC and the Americas.

Combines senior CMO-level leadership with advanced, hands-on AI capability — building AI-powered marketing functions that operate with the output of a full team. Equally effective as the entire marketing department for a startup, or as a senior leader within an established organisation driving performance and AI transformation. Currently operating independently; actively seeking the right permanent or fractional senior marketing role. London-based, remote or hybrid, open to global organisations.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Founder & AI Builder startmyclaim.ai — AI-Powered Consumer Legal Technology (Personal Project)	Dec 2025 – Present
– Built as a personal project during a career break to deepen practical AI knowledge — developed a fully operational AI-powered consumer legal software platform in under six months, working solo without developers, legal qualifications or agency support – The backend encompasses a claims assessment engine, AI-trained legal knowledge base, automated claim generation and document production, multi-stage claim progression logic, customer data processing pipelines and automated communication workflows — all designed, architected and built using advanced AI – Legal AI layer trained on UK consumer compensation legislation, claims management regulations and consumer rights frameworks — enabling the system to deliver structured, compliance-aware legal guidance autonomously, without human legal oversight – GDPR-compliant data architecture handling sensitive personal and financial information; FCA-adjacent compliance logic embedded throughout the claim progression system – Paid acquisition run personally across Google Ads and Meta — now using Claude AI agents to manage and optimise Google Ads campaigns programmatically, removing most manual campaign management work entirely – All content, social media and LinkedIn output produced and published through AI automation workflows — no manual posting or content writing – Live, revenue-generating and operating autonomously — demonstrating AI capability that goes well beyond tool use into genuine AI-driven software development, system design and autonomous business operations
Marketing Director Shufti Pro (rebranded to Shufti) — Global RegTech SaaS · Identity Verification, KYC/AML, Fraud Prevention	Jul 2022 – Dec 2025

Promoted twice: Senior Digital Marketing Manager → Head of Marketing → Marketing Director

- Scaled ARR from $3M to $20M and headcount from ~30 to 185+ employees — led global demand generation, brand repositioning and GTM strategy across the US, EMEA, MENA and APAC; primary enterprise markets included North America and the Middle East
- Built multi-channel inbound engine: 800–1,000 qualified leads/month; MQLs from ~40 to 300+/month; SQLs from ~5 to 70+/month across SEO, PPC, paid social, ABM, content and events
- Led the full company rebrand and website rebuild — new brand identity, positioning and go-to-market narrative aligned to enterprise expansion; delivered 300% organic growth through SEO and content strategy
- Designed and implemented enterprise ABM using 6sense — shifted to account-based, solution-led selling aligned to complex B2B enterprise sales cycles
- Led Gartner and Forrester analyst relations to strengthen enterprise credibility, pipeline acceleration and sales enablement
- Built and led a 7–10 person global marketing team (including contractors); owned £2.5M annual marketing budget; managed agencies across creative, digital, PR and events
- Owned HubSpot CRM, attribution, forecasting and board-level pipeline reporting; acted as central GTM partner to sales leadership, regional teams and product to align messaging and campaigns to strategic deals
- Oversaw enterprise events, executive roundtables and industry forums supporting strategic pipeline and customer trust
- Pioneered the introduction of AI across the marketing function — deploying AI tools to replace specialist agency dependency for copywriting, content production and design; built advanced HubSpot automation workflows that significantly reduced manual campaign execution; this hands-on experience formed the foundation for the far more advanced AI deployment at startmyclaim.ai
